This handbook will answer most questions, for any further queries or if you need another copy of the handbook, please call the office.

Anga Talavou (Student Engagement) Handbook

All talavou are required to know and understand the contents of the Anga Talavou Handbook which outlines the communication lines, processes and behavioural expectations at PASS.

PASS So'otaga Induction Week

This is a compulsory event for all talavou. We will spend four days building on our PASS values and culture in our village groups and our junior and senior cohorts. Each talavou is assigned a village parent and village for the years spent at PASS.

Our Villages are Mana Lagi, Mana Whenua, Mana Moana and Mana Tangata. Your talavou will be assigned to a village parent. This person will be your main point of contact throughout the year. We will spend time getting to know each other and re-establishing the PASS values and culture through village, school and community based activities.

- DAY ONE - Whānau Pōwhiri, PASS Induction Day
- DAY TWO - Local Histories Hikoi (field trips)
- DAY THREE - Village Community Service Day - Otāhuhu
- DAY FOUR - Village Outdoors Excursion - Auckland Wide

The goals of the Induction Week is to:

- Develop and strengthen relationships
- For talavou and staff to be introduced/re-introduced to the PASS values and culture
- Learn our local Māori histories and how they relate to Pasifika histories
- Provide opportunities to set the PASS perspective to challenges.
- Fellowship with village parents, brothers and sisters
- Set village culture and expectations for the year

This So'otaga (connecting) week is an integral part of settling your son/daughter into our PASS family environment. The programme will be filled with whānaungatanga (building strong relationships), Fa'a Pasifika (operating as Pasifika people) and Tu Tagata (developing physical and mental strength through physical and mental activities).

Please be sure to complete and return the EOTC and health permission forms included in your enrolment pack.
